

WEBCO at a Glance

Fact Sheet

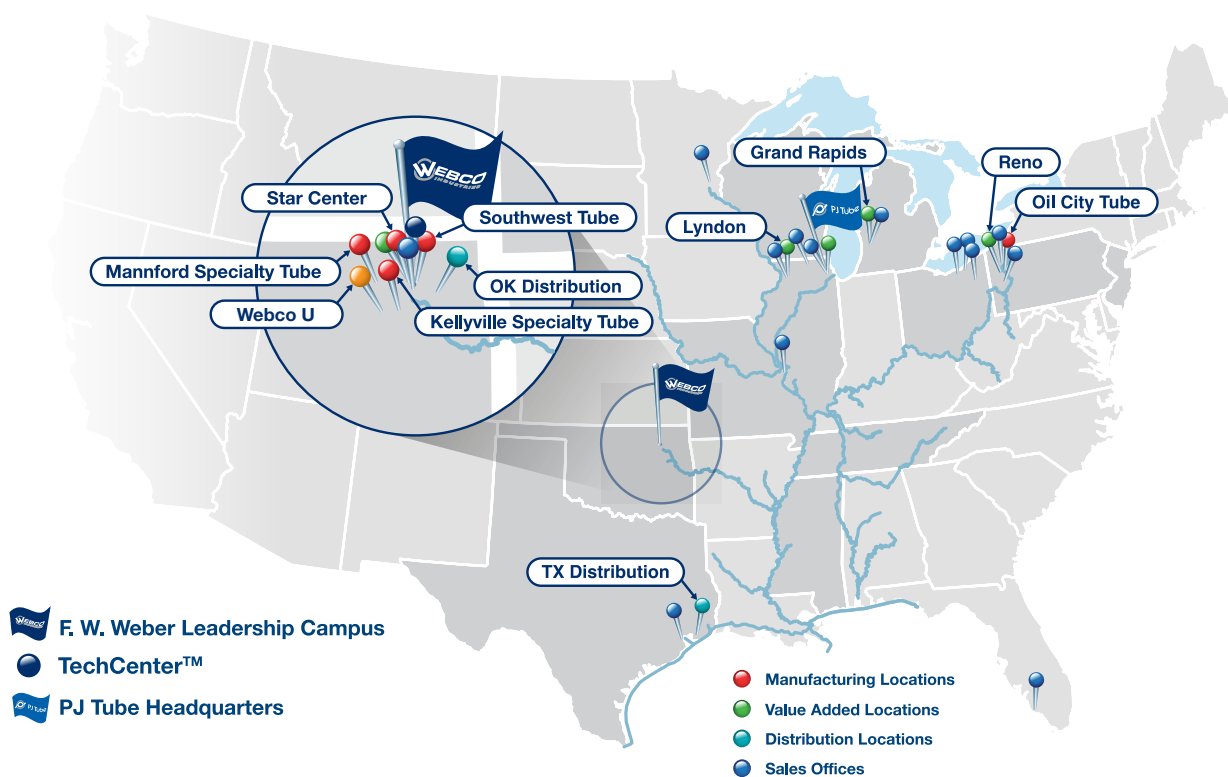

Webco Industries Inc. is the technical leader in manufacturing high quality carbon, stainless, and other high alloy specialty tubing products. Each are manufactured to exacting industry and customer specifications. Webco's long-term strategy includes the pursuit of niche markets within the specialty tubing industry through the deployment of leading – edge manufacturing and information technology. We are committed to advancing the specialty tubing market forward making us the partner of choice. Our innovative culture and empowered experts drive us to concise solutions through dedication and determination.

Industries

- Industrial & Agricultural
- Refining & Processing
- Automotive
- Upstream Oil & Gas
- Construction & Mining
- HVAC & Appliance
- Power Generation

Value-Added Services

- Finning
- Bending
- Heat Treating
- End Forming/Swaging
- Precision Cutting
- Enhanced Surface Tubing
- Electronic Data Interchange
- Inventory Management

Tubing Applications

- Heat Exchanger Tubing
- Boiler Tubing
- Specialty Stainless Tubing
- Coiled Tubing
- Drill Rods & Casing
- Instrumentation Tubing
- OCTG/Well Casing
- Bottom Hole Pump
- Subsea Steel Tube Umbilical
- Velocity String
- Welded Pipe
- Mechanical Tubing
- Hydraulic Tubing
- Driveline Tubing
- Steering & Suspension Tubing
- Roll Cage & Chassis Tubing
- Fuel Delivery & Exhaust Tubing

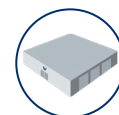

Quick Facts

1,400+
Teammates dedicated to serving customers

Teammates with 5+ Years Tenure

2.2 Million+
Square Footage of Webco Facility Space

16 Guiding Principles

1,100+
Customers Throughout North America

Headquarters in Sand Springs, OK

~80%
Carbon Raw Material Delivered to Webco Via Inland Waterway System

Non-Union Facilities